

Road 548 Review

5/30/2019

Attended by: Ed Odegaard, sale layout; Claudia Rumold, botany; Keith Sauter, hydrology; Tom Milter, archaeology; Charles Hutchinson, engineer; Amy Thompson, GIS and Lisa Hawdon, fisheries (recorder)

Objective of review: determine existing use and condition of road 548 for Homestead Project TAPS decision and review heritage site. No OHV use was observed on road 548.

Point 1: Human created side hill channel;

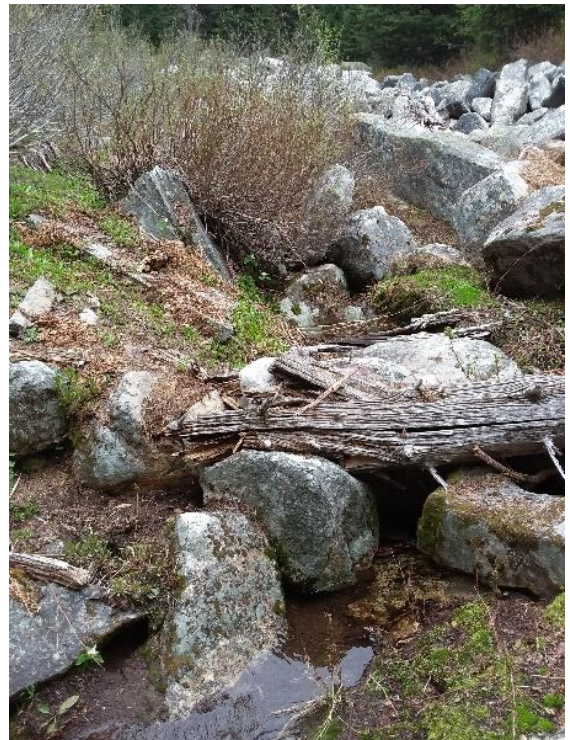

Point 2: No Photo, Seep

Point 3: No Photo, seep

Point 4: No Photo, seep

Point 5: Boulder field with stream flowing primarily under the boulders.

Point 6: FS road 548

Point 7: Perennial non-fish bearing stream that flows down road.

Point 8: Road 548 with stream flowing down road

Point 9: Start of road 548UT

Point 10: Start of road 548UR

Point 11: Road 548, stream flowing down road

Point 12: Stream flowing under road

Point 13: Stream not on GIS stream layer

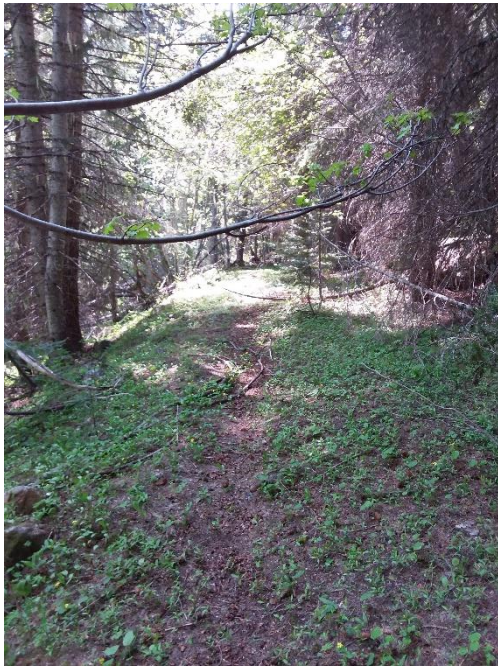

Point 14: Stream not on GIS no culvert under road

Point 14: continued

Point 15: At stream crossing on 548, no culvert seen

Point 16: Road 548

Point 17: No photo, Pool in road with Idaho Giant Salamander